CLASS HISTORY

We entered high school in 1955 with 45 pupils enrolled. Our girls seemed to be very interested in basketball. Among those receiving suits were: June Williard, Nancy Plott, Glendal Pruitt, Nan Earle Reavis, and Patsy Brawley. The boys didn't seem to think of basketball as their main sport this year, however, football was tops. Those receiving uniforms were: Johnny Martin, Bobby Goins, Gilbert Nance, and Vauda Hutchins. Our class officers were: President, Violet Horne; Vice-President, Glendal Pruitt; Secretary, Helen Reavis; Treasurer, Retha Pratt; Reporter, Nancy Plott, and Song Leader, Patsy Brawley. We were very proud of them because they were quite successful. We were very sorry to lose some of our classmates this year. They were: Helen Reavis, Retha Pratt, Martin White, Joe Mullis, Nancy Lash, Luther Baity, Jerry Shore, Avonell Key, and Elizabeth Cleary. We were very proud to gain Wayne Livengood. The girls homeroom teacher was Miss Anthony, the boys, Mr. Hanes. Our freshman year was very thrilling. Just excited over high school!

Our Sophomore year we entered with 31 flying colors. Our class officers this year were: President, Harold Lashmit; Vice-President, Johnny Martin; Secretary, Patsy Brawley; Treasurer, Glendal Pruitt; Reporter, Wilbur Baity. We were glad to enroll two new students this year, which were Mary Sutphin, and Shirley Royal. Those taking interest in sports this year were: Glendal Pruitt, June Williard, Nancy Plott, Patsy Brawley, Maebelle Dinkins, Harold Lashmit, Johnny Hanes, Wilbur Baity, Eldon Snow, and Gilbert Nance. We lost some students this year which were: Eddie Macemore, Billy Mundy, Bobby Goins, and Marie Dinkins. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Ethel Brumfield.

We had a very successful year when we were Juniors. We were very impressed over the Junior-Senior Banquet. Our class officers were: President, Harold Lashmit; Vice-President, Glendal Pruitt; Secretary, Patsy Brawley; Treasurer, Athalea Wilkins, and Reporter, Elden Steelman. We were very proud to gain two new students this year which were Harvey Miller and Lewis Booe. Of course, we had marshals, this being our Junior year. They were Nellie Mize, Harold Lashmit, Patsy Brawley, Athalea Wilkins, Maybelle Dinkins and Mary Sutphin. Several of our students were interested in bus driving this year: They were, Ray York, Grady Wiles, Betty Groce, Shirley Royal, Margarett Vestal, Lewis Booe, Harvey Miller, Wilbur Baity, Wayne Livengood and Eldon Snow. Our Junior Play, "He Couldn't Marry Five", was a very thrilling drama. The cast consisted of Athalea Wilkins, Geraldine Norman, Betty Groce, June Williard, Mary Sutphin, Maybelle Dinkins, Violet Horne, Johnny Martin, Patsy Brawley, and Harold Lashmit. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Ethel Brumfield.

The Senior year was the most important year of high school. First of all, let me take space to name the class officers, which were: President, Harold Lashmit; Vice-President, Wayne Hollar; Secretary, Nellie Mize; Treasurer, June Williard; Reporter, Patsy Brawley. Another highlight of the year was the annual. Those on the "Courtnian" staff were: Athalea Wilkins, Glendal Pruitt, Violet Horne, Mary Sutphin, Wilbur Baity, Patsy Brawley, Geraldine Norman, Maebelle Dinkins, Marie Baity, and Harold Lashmit, Johnny Martin, Wayne Livengood. We dedicated the '59 "Courtnian" to Mr. R. B. Matthews and In Memoriam to Francis Miller. Our trip to Washington was simply grand. We enjoyed it the most. Our senior advisor is Miss Catherine Anthony. We have 30 students (14 girls and 16 boys). None of us expects to graduate with high honors, however, we will graduate with a year of fun and hard work!

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was getting ready to leave for my vacation this May 25, 1963, I decided it would be fun to look up as many of my fellow classmates as possible. Incidentally, I am Geraldine Norman, now secretary for Piedmont Air Lines in New York City.

Hurriedly I wrote a note to my roommate and classmate of '59, Violet Horne, now a well-known actress in Western Movies, called a cab, and headed for the airport.

Having a few minutes to wait, I switched on the T. V. and heard that Johnny Hanes had won the race at Indianapolis--by the way, he was driving a Ford. I switched channels and there was Patsy Brawley making her first appearance on the "Lawrence Welk Show."

They announced that my plane had arrived so I hurried to my seat. There I met another one of my classmates, Margarett Vestal, who was the stewardess, and, to my surprise, she told me that Grady Wiles was the pilot. I began to wonder if I would arrive safely when I found out that Gray Cranfill was co-pilot.

As the plane landed I saw Athalea Wilkins who is now happily married and also secretary of Wilson's Construction Company waiting for me. As I went to collect my baggage, I met Wayne Hollar who had just arrived from Hollywood where he had been singing in a night club. He told me that Ray York was making a big hit there also.

At last we were on our way. While passing through Winston-Salem we decided to stop by and say hello to June Williard who is now married and working at R. J. Reynolds. While we were there she told us about others. Betty Groce is now living in Germany with her husband. She also told me that Eldon Snow is in the navy and that Wilbur Baity and Johnny Martin are now comedians on the Ed Sullivan Show. Shirley Royal is playing basketball at College. Glendal Pruitt, as I expected is now happily married and living in California.

Athalea and I thought it would be fun to visit "Dear Old Courtney," so we did. There we met two of our classmates. Harold Lasmit who is now principal and to our surprise Nellie Mize is now teaching English. They told us that Gilbert Nance now owns a big farm and is very happy, and that Harvey Miller and Lewis Booe own a big restaurant at Statesville. Eldon Steelman and C. G. Hutchens are still loafing around as usual. Vauda Hutchens is now a professional football player and that Wayne Livengood is happily married and living at Courtney Junction. Also, that Maybelle Dinkins is now designing clothes in Florida.

To bring my visit to an end I met Blanche Ledbetter and Mary Sutphin who were on their way to the City Hospital at Winston-Salem where they are now nursing. Marie Baity is an X-ray Technician there also.

Gee! It has been so much fun finding out about my classmates of '59.
